LOCAL NEWS.

I. O. G. T.—At the session of the Grand Lodge of I. O. G. T. of Virginia, held at Harrisonburg on the 18th inst., the following officers were elected:
G. W. C. T., W. J. Points, of Harrisonburg.
G. W. Counsellor, J. R. Caton, of Alexandria.
G. W. V. T., Mrs. E. C. Greer, of Charlotte county.
G. W. Chaplain, J. W. Cantor, of Harrisonburg.
G. W. Secretary, G. W. Hawhurst, of Fairfax C. H.

G. W. Treasurer, J. S. Otis, of Clifton.
G. W. M., C. H. Gard, of Newtown.
A. M., Miss Mollie Blackburn, of Staunton.
W. I. G., Wm. M. Hall, of Orebanks.
W. O. G., B. D. Stallings, of Alexandria.
On the evening of the 19th the officers were duly installed into office by C. W. Miller, P. G. W. C. T., with the ceremony of the order, in the M. E. Church, South, after which a public meeting was held, and addresses made by Rev. Mr. Davall, of Harrisonburg; Rev. Mr. Pierce, of North Carolina; Rev. Mr. Graves, of Marion; J. R. Caton, of Alexandria; Dr. Shipley, of Middletown, and Judge Sinclair, of Prince William county.
The audience was large and very attentive, and the meeting generally well spoken of.

PROF. WORCESTER'S ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.—The City School Board having expended on the Peabody Building as much money as could be afforded at present, the fine hall in the second story had to be left unfinished. The Superintendent, however, wants to make arrangements for using it, when necessary, for general school purposes, and has induced Prof. B. P. Worcester to give one of his "Illustrated Lectures of Travel" there on Monday night next, the proceeds to be applied to paying for furniture purchased on the faith of them. Prof. W. has a fine Stereopticon and will give a series of pictures (of very large size) of many of the most remarkable scenes, buildings, &c., in the world, with full explanations. We trust our citizens will attend the lecture, or, if unable to do so, at least purchase tickets from the school children, who are selling them, for the assembly room of the new building will be found indispensable to the proper working of the schools, and this is the only chance of rendering it available at present.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon:

Alfred Webb, colored, for slaughtering with the corporate limits, and Robert McGowan, Miles Mahan, and Henry McCann, soldiers from Fort Foot, for disorderly conduct, were discharged with a reprimand.
James Richards and William Thompson were arrested for fighting at the Oyster Dock. Richards was discharged, Thompson, fined and discharged.

The above cases were before the Mayor.
Mary Blackburn, for assaulting Sarah Newton, both colored, and Champ Faulstich, for running his omnibus against the wagon of John Lee, both colored, were discharged by Justice Padgett upon the payment of costs, and going security to keep the peace.

There were thirteen lodgers at the station house last night.

POST OFFICES.—It is seen by reference to the last Postal Guide Laws, October, 1874, that there are twelve postoffices named Alexandria—one in Indiana, one in Kentucky, one in Louisiana, one in Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and Virginia. There are twenty-two Richmond, twelve Leesburgs, five Norfolk, seven Fredericksburgs, seventeen Petersburgs, six Lynchburgs, and eighteen Danvilles. Is it any wonder letters go wrong when the name of the State is so frequently omitted by correspondents. There are four first-class postmasters in Virginia, whose salaries are $4,000; viz. Norfolk, Petersburg, and Richmond, and $3,200 for Lynchburg. Eight second class, whose salaries run from $2,100 to $2,900, among which is included Alexandria. Eight third class from $1,200 to $1,600.

OLD PAPERS.—Among the debris of the late fire, at the northeast corner of the intersection of King and Lee streets, there have been raked up many old and interesting papers that were packed away in the upper stories of the warehouse that stood there. Though partially charred by the fire, and dimmed by time and smoke, the sign manual of General Washington, Henry Lee, (Light Horse Harry) and many of the illustrious characters who added lustre to Virginia's name in the old part of the last century, are distinctly visible upon some of them and revive pleasant reminiscences of the worthies who in the good old Colonial times were as familiar with the residents of this city, as their descendants are with those now living here.

ALL RIGHT ON THE GOOSE.—A gentleman in this city who had occasion, a short time since, to order two of the smoothing irons—a single one of which is known as a tailor's goose—was puzzled about the correct way of expressing his want. He thought if he wrote for geese he would be laughed at, but that the same fate awaited him if he expressed a desire for geese. In his perplexity he consulted an old time exporter, who took a piece of paper and wrote thereon as follows:—Mr. , please send me a tailor's goose; yea, two of them.

FURNITURE FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The furniture purchased for Lee School having been, at least, put into a condition satisfactory to the committee of the School Board was placed in position in the different rooms to day. It presents a very neat appearance. The furniture of the old Assembly Rooms over Witmer's Dry Good Store, having been purchased for the Peabody School Building, was also placed in the assembly room there, and that room can now be used for lectures, &c.

POSTPONEMENT.—The drawing of the Montpelier Female Humane Association which was advertised to take place on Monday next has been postponed until Monday, the 29th of next March. The managers assure their patrons that the enterprise, has met with such favorable, earnest and liberal response from the public, as to insure its success, and to enable them to fix on a final and positive day for the Concert and Distribution of Gifts.

PERSONAL.—The Staunton Virginian says:

"Rev. Randolph McKim, rector of Christ Church, Alexandria, and son-in-law of Rev. R. H. Phillips, of this city, is prominently spoken of as one of the Bishops for the new Diocese created by the division of the Diocese of Ohio. He is a young minister of great promise and deep piety, and the high honor spoken of would be a fitting tribute to his devotion and studious labor in his holy calling."

FIRE IN THE WOODS.—The Washington Star says:—The woods on the Young place, (Giesboro') near the National race course, took fire Thursday afternoon, and a considerable tract of what was known as Young's grove was burned. The citizens turned out nobly, and fought the flames for some time, and succeeded in extinguishing them, and thereby saved a number of residences, barns, &c.

THE MARKET.—All sorts of such game as is killed in this vicinity was in market this morning and many varieties of excellent fresh fish. There was also an abundant supply of poultry, and the usual variety of meats and vegetables, also butter and eggs. The attendance of both buyers and sellers was large. The ruling prices did not differ much from those of last Saturday.

THE WEATHER.—There was a light fall of rain yesterday evening, but the wind came from the northwest strong and cold during the night, and the sky rapidly cleared away, to become cloudy again, however, this morning. It has been partially cloudy all day, the wind continuing from the northwest, and the temperature being seasonable.

FALSE ALARM.—So many fires have occurred in this city lately that general attention is directed to them and every body is on the look out for another, and so last night the noise made by some boys who were calling to each other was readily mistaken for a fire alarm which succeeded in bringing out the fire department.

ORONOKO STREET.—The Committee on Streets having, in accordance with a resolution adopted by the City Council, fixed a grade for Oronoko street, east of St. Asaph, Superintendent Clifford has put the chain gang to work in grading that thoroughfare and setting curbstones along its sidewalks.

PROPERTY SALE.—Green & Wise, auctioneers, sold to-day for Allen C. Harmon, trustee, the brick dwelling and lot of ground on the northeast corner of Alfred and Wolfe streets, to Edward Dunn, for $1,225.

LIFE IN THE SEED.—A lady residing in this city in making lemonade a short time since cut a lemon the seeds of which had sprouted, and planting them, she has now growing some thrifty and beautiful lemon trees.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be kept in every family. A slight cough, if unchecked, is often the forerunner of Consumption, and a timely dose of this wonderful medicine has rescued many from an early grave.

The President and a Committee of the Directors of the Alexandria Library Company respectfully ask the ladies who feel an interest in the maintenance and success of the Library to meet at the Library Room, on Monday evening next, the 23d instant, at 4 o'clock, to perfect arrangements for the holding of a Festival for the benefit of the Library. The closing of the Library has been twice prevented by the generous and zealous efforts of the ladies; and the committee feel confident that this appeal for further assistance will not be in vain. All who wish for the diffusion of knowledge, and appreciate the refining influences of literature, must earnestly desire the continuance of the Library.

S. C. NEALE, President.

Committee.—P. B. Hooe, M. Slaughter, K. Kemper, E. A. Stabler, J. R. Zimmerman, and George R. Shinn.

ATTENTION, RED MEN.—Osceola Tribe, No. 1, will pay Black Hawk, Tribe, No. 12, of Washington, a fraternal visit on the 25th sleep of beaver moon. Every brother of the Tribe is notified to be present on that occasion.

By order of the Tribe:
nov 21-1t W. A. Sisson, Chief of Records.

RHEUMATISM AND GOUT.

Rheumatism and Gout are the most terrible diseases that any one could suffer with. Eight out of every ten persons suffer more or less from either one or the other of the above.

THE PROPRIETORS OF

MERCHANTS' GOUT AND RHEUMATIC

REMEDY

are well aware of the above fact, and for several years past have labored to produce a specific for the above diseases. In offering their invaluable preparation to the public, they would say that, whoever, after giving their Remedy a fair trial, it fails to relieve, they will cheerfully refund the money.

From one who has suffered and been cured:
Washington, D. C., Nov. 17, 1874.
Messrs. J. R. Merchant & Co.:
Gentlemen: I am glad to be able to certify to the excellence of "Merchant's Gout and Rheumatic Remedy." In September last I had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism which lasted 48 hours, during which time I could neither rest nor sleep, on account of the taking the first dose I was greatly relieved, and after taking one (small) bottle I had entirely recovered. Have had no return of symptoms since. If your Remedy is taken according to directions, I believe the worst cases can be cured. Wishing you great success, I am, respectfully,
S. T. FOSTER.

Prepared only by J. R. MERCHANT & CO., Druggists, corner Fourteenth and 1st, Washington, D. C. Price 50c per bottle. For sale by SAMUEL H. LESTER, nov 21-1w Cor. King and Washington st.

(SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

Verdict for $50,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A verdict was given for the government yesterday in the United States District Court for fifty thousand dollars, in the suit against the bondsmen of Caleb Lyon, formerly Governor of Idaho and Superintendent of Indian Affairs for that Territory. There was a balance against Lyon when he was removed from office by President Johnson, of $46,000, and he explained as the reason for its non-payment; that he was robbed while en route from Idaho to Washington. The suit was to recover the amount of his bond, $50,000. The verdict was given in accordance with the ruling of Judge Blatchford, that under an un-repealed law of 1779, no proof of loss can be admitted as defence to an action instituted by the government, unless accompanied by other proof that a claim for an allowance for the loss has been presented and passed upon by the proper accounting officers for the government.

Another Railroad to the West.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—The project of a new and direct Railroad from Boston to the West is receiving the general attention of business men here. The route proposed is via Wilkes-Barre, Hartford, Poughkeepsie, and crossing the Hudson River where but a distance of 18 miles from the river connections can be made with the Pennsylvania and Erie Roads to the West and a line to Washington and the South.

Schools to be Closed.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 21.—The Board of Education voted last night to close all the public schools here, on the 30th. This action grows out of a conflict with the Common Council relative to further appropriations. The Council claim that the Board have exhausted all funds that can legally be voted them during the present year.

From Rio Janeiro.

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 20.—The gunboat Parana, of the Argentine revolutionists, has been voluntarily surrendered to the government fleet. Her crew landed at Montevideo. The government of the Argentine Republic has stopped the mails from Buenos Ayres for Europe. Trade at Rio is dull.

New York Bank Statement.

Turned Over.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Edward Kidney, a cotton broker of New Orleans, arrested on a charge of defrauding Mrs. Van Osterne of New Orleans of $55,000 was turned over to that lady yesterday on requisition from the Governor of Louisiana and departed with her, there apparently being no need of officers to help to retain him.

Borier Explosion.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—About ten o'clock this morning a borier exploded in the soap works of J. Wellwood, on Newark avenue, Jersey City, completely demolishing the building, causing a loss of $15,000 and killing a colored woman named Eliza Harris, and slightly injuring several other.

Going to Appeal.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 21.—T. L. James, Clerk-elect of the Court of Appeals who was recently declared ineligible by reason of participation in a duel has signified his intention of appealing to the Court of Appeals.

Editors in Prison.

MADRID, Nov. 21.—The editors of La Prensa, La Baudera, and El Espiral newspapers, have been arrested and sent to prison for violating the press laws established under the late of seige.

The $6,000 Race.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Betting on the six thousand dollar trotting race between Occident, Fullerton and Sam Purdy has been changed. Fullerton is now the first choice with small odds, and Occident the second choice.

Notice to Emigrants.

ROME, Nov. 21.—The Italian government is taking pains to inform persons who intend emigrating to the Argentine Republic that trade is at a standstill in consequence of the political disturbances.

WATCH THIEF ARRESTED.—James Bryant, colored, was arrested Wednesday, by Sergeant Browning, upon the charge of stealing a gold watch from Mr. James V. Brooke, of Warrenton, some time during the month of October. Bryant sold or traded the watch to Henry Jackson colored, who also disposed of it to Mr. Burgandine. The negro was taken back to Warrenton to await trial.—Culpeper Observer.

ESTRAYED OR STOLEN, from the premises of James Wilson, near Pleasant Valley P. O., Fairfax county, Va., on the morning of the 19th day of October, 1874, a LARGE BAY MARE, two years old last May, about fifteen hands high, and has been ridden since she has one white hind foot and scar on right fore foot, and heavy mane and tail. Any information leading to her recovery will be liberally rewarded.
A. R. JACOBS,
nov 17-1w Unison, Loudoun county, Va.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The festival held in the Assembly Rooms for the benefit of Grace Church closed last night, and though not patronized as liberally as the object to be promoted ought to have been, and the pains taken by the management deserved, still the proceeds derived considerably exceeded the expenses.

The ladies who feel an interest in the Alexandria Library are, as will be seen by a notice elsewhere in to-day's Gazette, invited to meet at the Library Rooms next Monday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

Letters addressed to Mrs. E. Clark, Newport, Del., and Mollie B. Brookfield, Opelika, Ala., are detained in the Postoffice here for want of postage.

The ladies belonging to the congregation of Christ Church propose giving a festival for the benefit of that church at an early date.

Dr. Wat Tyler, nephew of President Tyler, died at his home at "The Hague," Westmoreland county, last Wednesday.

It is understood that nothing will be done towards putting the street railroad in operation again until next spring.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21, 11 a. m.
For the Middle States, generally clear and cold weather with southwest to northwest winds and slight changes in pressure.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

A decree has been entered in the United States Circuit Court of Nebraska directing the foreclosure and sale of the Nebraska portion of the Western Division of the St. Joseph and Denver City Railroad, and also of the lands owned by the company in that State. On the 25th instant decrees will be entered in Kansas for the foreclosure and sale of the Kansas branch of the Western Division, and also of the Eastern Division, with the lands. J. Augustus Johnson, of New York, represented the trustees in the litigation.
